

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

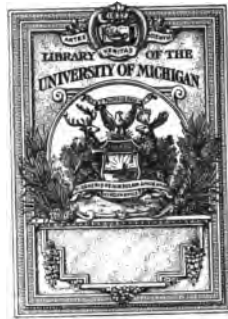

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

General Treasurer	Walter A. Read, of Gloucester.

REPORT.

GENERAL TREASURER'S OFFICE.

PROVIDENCE, R. I., January 1905.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations:

In compliance with the requirements of Chapter 33, Title VI, of the General Laws, I have the honor to submit a detailed statement of the receipts and expenditures of the treasury department for the fiscal year ending December 31, 1904, the condition of the State House Sinking Fund, the Touro Jewish Synagogue Fund, the Land Grant Fund of 1862, and several other funds in custody of the State.

Reference to the statement of the condition of the general fund will show the expenditures of the State the past year have exceeded the receipts, and to meet the demands made upon the treasury the General Treasurer has been obliged to secure temporary loans approaching the limit permitted by law.

A liberal estimate of the income of the State for 1905 will amount, in round numbers, to $1,663,000.00. Existing laws and fixed charges require appropriations for the objects named below:

Salaries of State officials, heads of departments, and assistants...	$69,700 00
Salaries of judges, supreme, common pleas, and district courts, sheriffs, officers, jurors, witnesses, and expenses.....	242,400 00
Pay and mileage of members, clerks, officers, pages, clerks of committees of the General Assembly.....	56,000 00
Horticultural, historical, and agricultural societies.....	8,000 00
Boards of health and agriculture.....	26,000 00

Public schools, evening schools, and educational institutions.....	$287,300	00
Public libraries.....	8,300	00
Charitable, benevolent and penal institutions.....	386,500	00
Sinking Fund.....	41,000	00
Interest, State house bonds and temporary loans.....	110,000	00
Military affairs.....	50,000	00
State printing and binding.....	50,000	00
Care and maintenance, public buildings.....	55,000	00
Expenses of boards and commissions.....	12,000	00
Miscellaneous.....	64,000	00
	<hr/>
	$1,540,900	00
Unexpended balances of special appropriations of
1904 to be paid from receipts of 1905.....	$234,855	55
Temporary loans due 1905.....	200,000	00
	$1,975,755	55

In addition to the above the fixed charges of the State will be materially increased by the reorganization of the judiciary system, the completion and occupancy of the State Sanatorium, and the taking of a census of the population, manufactures, and business of the State, as required by Chapter 69 of the General Laws; and if appropriations are granted for the erection of a new court house, or for the extension and remodeling of the Providence County Court House, the completion of the Providence armory, and the continued improvement of State highways, they will not only absorb the gross income of the State for 1905 but make serious inroads in the receipts of 1906. The number of unfortunate and afflicted are also constantly increasing in our charitable and benevolent institutions, and to provide them with the best medical treatment, proper care and attention, agreeable and comfortable surroundings, makes no inconsiderable draft upon the revenue of the State.

These heavy demands upon the public purse can not fairly be attributed to prodigality or to a spirit of extravagance, but are due, in a large measure, to the legitimate demands of a growing population for modern methods and better facilities for the transaction of public business; for a higher standard, more supervision, and more liberal expenditures in matters of education; for better and easier communication and transportation with the outlying districts of the State, and the improvements and conveniences that are essential, even indispensable, to a thriving and progressive community.

Heretofore all public buildings, with the exception of the new State House, have been erected with, and all permanent improvements made from, the proceeds of current receipts; but it is evident, from the facts as above set forth, that this wise and conservative policy of paying as we go can not be maintained, that all special appropriations must cease, for a time at least, and the fixed charges and running expenses of the State reduced to a minimum, unless there is a complete revision in our system of taxation.

A list of the present sources of revenue, with the amount derived from each, may be found in the appendix, also a list of the unexpended balances of special appropriations to be paid from the receipts of 1905.

The statement of the condition of the State House Sinking Fund attached hereto shows the State has reduced its bonded debt $278,000.00 during the past year, and that no further payment of bonds is required before the year 1914. To liquidate the $400,000.00 State House Construction bonds due at that date the Sinking Fund Commissioners have in their possession bonds and securities amounting to $317,135.83.

The net indebtedness of the State may be stated as follows:

Floating debt.....	$200,000 00
Bonded debt.....	2,392,864 24
	$2,592,864 24

The balance of the claim of this State against the United States, amounting to $85,153.15, for enrolling, equipping, and subsisting its troops in the war with Spain is still unpaid, but it is believed recent legislation of Congress will lead to a satisfactory adjustment of this claim at an early date.

In accordance with the provisions of sections 16 and 17, Chapter

33, General Laws, I report that a corporation known as the University School is indebted to the State for the rent of the old Normal School building, Waterman street, Providence, for the sum of $4,033.34.

The town of Warwick having failed to pay its portion of the State tax, due December 15, 1904, amounting to $11,305.36, a certificate to this effect has been forwarded to the Attorney-General.
